

TRAVEL PERMITS (TO A RECEIVING STATE).

Temporary. An offender who is not a "sex offender" under the compact, and who is living in the receiving state at the time he or she is placed on probation, may be given a temporary travel permit for up to seven days to allow time for the receiving state to issue reporting instructions.

Travel permits may be issued by a sending state to allow an offender to proceed to a receiving state prior to completion of an investigation and formal acceptance of the case in emergency situations. NO TRAVEL PERMIT MAY BE ISSUED WITHOUT REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE RECEIVING STATE.

Blanket. Blanket or temporary travel permits are required by the receiving state when the compact offender will be traveling back to the sending state for recurring activity. The purpose of travel and activities must be specified.
